

January 7, 2003

Dear Potential CIT,

I would like to invite you to become a part of our CIT family. It is an excellent opportunity that is rewarding in many ways. The memories and friends I made during my CIT experience are, by far, the best I have. I can't imagine what my life would be like without them.

Looking back to the first day of our training, I have to laugh. We were all so nervous and quiet that I started to think I had made a wrong decision by coming. Luckily, I was proven wrong. By dinner that night, we were laughing at newly-made inside jokes, and excitedly discussing our plans for the group. By the next morning, I knew that I had just gained 13 best friends that would be irreplaceable in my life.

I could tell endless stories about the great experiences I had during my CIT years to encourage you to become one. The catch is that some of the best moments are unexplainable. The only way to fully understand would be to experience them yourself.

I urge you to take advantage of this chance-of-a-lifetime opportunity to become a CIT.

Sincerely,

Miss Alison

Alison Teal
CIT, 2002